

MP Cong govt in minority: BJP

Wants the Kamal Nath govt to prove majority

SANDEEP KUMAR Bhopal, 20 May

The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) in Madhya Pradesh has written to Governor Anandiben Patel, saying the Kamal Nath-led Congress government has lost majority and hence the right to rule the state. This comes a day after the exit polls predicted a thumping victory for the BJP and the National Democratic Alliance in the Lok Sabha elections. In a letter addressed to the governor, leader of opposition Gopal Bhargava wrote that during the six months of the current government, the law and order situation has deteriorated, a drinking water crisis has erupted and farmers are confused. Citing these, Bhargava requested a special session of the Assembly be called. While talking to the media, Bhargava said the Madhya Pradesh government will 'fall on its own'. He said the time has come and it will have to go soon. 'We also want to test the strength of the Congress government,' he added.

MP Chief Minister Kamal Nath said the government was ready for a floor test

Kamal Nath said: "They (the BJP) have been trying this since they... have proved majority at least four times in last five months. They want to do it again, we have no problem. They'll try their best to disturb the present government to save themselves from getting exposed. The government is ready for a floor test." Congress spokesperson Syed Iqbal also dismissed the BJP's claim. He told Business Standard, "We are reporting this since the day we formed the government. If they have some plan they should go forward. I assure you that Congress is ready to tackle every situation." On Sunday, BJP leader Kalush Vijayavargiya said Kamal Nath was "dreaming" about winning 22 Lok Sabha seats in the state at a time when there is a question mark over his government being able to survive for 22 days. The exit polls forecast the BJP can win as much as 27 of the 29 seats in MP. But, the numbers game is a bit tricky in the state. In Assembly election, the Congress had won 114 seats, one short of the halfway mark in the 230-seat House. The BJP had come a close second with 109 seats. The Congress formed the government with support from Mayawati's Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) and Akhilesh Yadav's Samajwadi Party. During Lok Sabha elections when BSP-Gama candidate Lokendra Singh Rajput switched loyalty to the Congress, Mayawati had threatened the Congress, saying it will have to pay a heavy price. In another episode, JAYAS Jaiy Advaita Yuwa Shakti Sangathan leader and Congress MP Hiralal Alawa had made it clear that he just contested on Congress symbol and he is not a member of the party. Alawa is unhappy because the party has not considered his candidature in tribal-dominated Mithun-Vinay region. Political analyst Gita Shrivastava said a different take on the episode. He says "There is no substance to these claims. Whether it is Kalush (Vijayavargiya) or Gopal Bhargava, they are all trying to create the picture. They are afraid that after UP polls, (former CM) Shriy Singh Chauhan may come back to the driver's seat in the state. They are just trying to take advantage of the situation."

NDA leaders meet PM, Snah for dinner today amid exit poll euphoria

ARCHIS MOHAR & VIRENDRA SINGH RAWAT New Delhi/Lucknow, 20 May

The topmost leaders of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) will meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Minister Shivraj Chaudhary for dinner on Tuesday. The dinner will be both the BJP leaders thanking NDA allies for their support in the 2019 Lok Sabha poll campaign and discussions on the road ahead. While several exit polls have predicted a clear majority for the BJP on its own, some others have forecasted that the party could fall short of the majority mark and need support of its allies to reach the majority mark of 272 seats. The dinner will be held at the national capital's Ashoka Hotel. Meanwhile, the BJP (BJP) has indicated it might be amenable to supporting an NDA government at the Centre if it were to grant Odisha special category status. The meeting cannot be held a few days before the counting of votes on Thursday. Apart from Modi and Shah, Janata Dal (United) chief Nitish Kumar, Shiv Sena chief Uddhav Thackeray and Lok Janshakti Party's Ram Vilas Paswan are likely to attend the meeting. Another meeting of BJP leaders, including union ministers, is likely to be held at the party headquarters on the same day. Exit poll results have also somewhat quelled any speculation of an alternative front of regional parties getting together to form the government at the Centre. The Shiv Sena, the BJP's ally in Maharashtra, on Monday was dismissive of the efforts of Telugu Desam Party and N Chandrababu Naidu to knit together an alliance of the Congress and regional parties.

"The 'mahagathbandhan' (proposed grand alliance of opposition parties) has at least five prime ministerial hopefuls... their hopes are likely to be dashed going by the current indications."

Rajbhar from his Cabinet. Rajbhar heads the Suheldev Bharatiya Samaj Party. In the run-up to the Lok Sabha campaign, Rajbhar had fallen out with the BJP over seat-sharing talks. He had demanded five seats for his party. The BJP had asked the party to contest from the Ghosi Lok Sabha seat. Rajbhar filed his party's candidates on 39 seats across UP and announced support to 'mahagathbandhan' candidates. The Samajwadi Party, the Bahujan Samaj Party and the Rashtriya Lok Dal in several others. Rajbhar had earlier sent his resignation letter to the CM. It was not accepted as the BJP felt the development might have an adverse impact on its support base among the OBC Rajbhar, and other backward communities. Adityanath on Monday announced on Twitter that he has requested UP Governor to sack Rajbhar, who was holding the portfolio of the backward class welfare and 'divyangjan' (differently abled) empowerment minister. A Raj Bhavan communique confirmed that the governor has accepted Rajbhar's resignation. Two of Rajbhar's nominees in UP backward class commission were also sacked.

Open to wait till result day to firm up strategy

ARCHIS MOHAR New Delhi, 20 May

Opposition leaders on Monday rejected the exit polls that have predicted a majority for the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA), and said they would meet in the national capital on Thursday, the day of counting of votes, to firm up their strategy if trends point towards BJP. A delegation of Opposition leaders will meet Election Commission officials on Tuesday. On Monday, Samajwadi Party (SP) President Akhilesh Yadav met Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP) chief Mayawati in Lucknow. In

Delhi result declaration may be delayed by 3 hrs

Delhi results for the Delhi Lok Sabha seats may get delayed by around five to six hours on May 23 as more time will be spent counting. WPAs from each of the 10 Assembly segments, Chief Electoral Officer Ranbir Singh has said. Munnetra Kazhagam chief M K Stalin said his party did not believe in exit poll projections even if they are favourable to his party. Most exit polls have predicted the DMK-led alliance would win most of Tamil Nadu's 39 Lok Sabha seats. In Chennai, Davida

Kamal Haasan gets anticipatory bail

The Madras High Court granted actor-politician Kamal Haasan for his Hindu extremist remark on Monday, saying that identifying a criminal with a religion, caste or race would be deeply against the seeds of hatred among people. Granting anticipatory bail to Haasan, Justice R Pugulendhi of the Madurai bench of the high court said his remarks had become common of late. At a recent public hearing, Haasan said the first extremist in independent India was a Hindu, a reference to Nathuram Godse who shot dead Mahatma Gandhi.

FM: Results to be in line with exit poll outcome

Finance Minister Arun Jaitley on Monday said poll results would be in consonance with the outcome of multiple exit polls, which predicted a second term for the NDA. "When multiple exit polls convey the same message, the direction of the result broadly would be in consonance with the message," Jaitley said in a blogpost titled 'The Message of Exit Polls'.

Exit polls are not final decision, says Gadkari

Union minister Nitin Gadkari on Monday said the exit polls are not the "final decision" but indicate that they will not come to power, depending on the development work done by the NDA government. The senior BJP leader was speaking to the launch of a poster of PM Narendra Modi, a biopic on PM Narendra Modi, being released this Friday. PTI
